
QUALIFYING WORDS AND PHRASES

Qualifying words and phrases modify the conditions which affect important ideas or situations. There are two kinds: absolute and sometimes words. Absolutes mean 100% of the time and sometimes words mean undefined portions or numbers of times.

Absolute words and phrases:

no - all - never | always | only - ever | none - no one | forever - every time

Sometimes words and phrases:

few - many | occasionally | some | most - somewhat | sometimes | usually - nearly | always

EMPHASIS WORDS AND PHRASES

These clues indicate a degree of importance of ideas and events in relation to each other.

above all - less important - most important - key idea - more importantly the crux - main point - less so - a central fact - of significance

TIME AND ORDER WORDS AND PHRASES

Time and order words and phrases indicate specific organization patterns of ideas. There are times when order is crucial to an accurate understanding of ideas or events.

finally | second - then | next | last - afterwards | before | formerly
later - now - finally - meanwhile | ultimately - presently | previously

SUMMARIZING PHRASES

Summarizing phrases indicate important ideas will be reviewed.

in brief - to sum up - for these reasons - to review - in conclusion
